

Upcoming at The National Trust

Bermuda National Trust & BUEI Films
Present:
Project Wild Thing with David Bond
Thursday, March 28th at 7:30pm

Join David Bond, an award-winning director, producer and writer of documentary films as he explores how his children's lives are dominated by a cacophony of marketing, and a screen dependence. His humorous journey unearths some painful truths about modern family life. His product is free, plentiful and has proven benefits - but is Nature past its sell-by date?

BUEI/BNT Members: $20

Non-members: $25

Students: $12

Tickets available by calling 294-0204 or visiting BUEI's Oceans Gift Shop

Keeping Bermuda Beautiful Environmental Partner Award

The Bermuda National Trust received the Environmental Partner Award at the KBB Appreciation Awards on Tuesday.

The award was given for collaborative work with students, KBB and the BNT education department. This evolved into a partnership between the BNT, KBB and The Bermuda Audubon Society where large sections of Paget Marsh nature reserve were cleaned up and replanted with endemics.

Children's Nature Walk

The annual children's nature walk will take place on the morning of April 4th, 2019.

Children and guardians will have the opportunity to experience nature first hand at Spittal Pond. They will be taken along the route by the Trust's enthusiastic guides and will learn about biodiversity, habitats, history, geology and conservation.
